

University of Washington Department of Classics
Departmental Honors in Classics, Greek, or Latin

Steps toward earning the departmental distinction “With Honors in Classics”
(<https://classics.washington.edu/undergraduate-honors-program>)

It is the student’s responsibility to keep this information accurate and up to date. Please email a copy of this pdf to the Honor’s Advisor prior to your quarterly meeting.

Name of student: _____

1. Initial consultation with the Classics Honors Advisor ____; date _____
2. Qualifying GPA: Overall ____; Classics/Latin/Greek ____
3. Consultation with the faculty advisor who will oversee the thesis ____; date _____
4. Name of thesis advisor: _____
5. Completion of the Undergraduate Seminar or Honors substitute _____
6. If Honors substitute, course name:

7. Submission of a proposal for a Mary Gates Scholarship ____ or submission of a paper for presentation at the Undergraduate Research Symposium ____
8. Name(s) of the project(s) _____
9. Completion of 9 credits of Classics/Latin/Greek 490H ____
10. Completion of the Honors Thesis ____
11. Title of Thesis: _____
12. Completion of the Classics/Latin/Greek major with a GPA of 3.7 or higher ____
13. Graduation from the UW with an overall GPA of 3.3 ____

NB: All Honors students may apply for the Bonderman Fellowship in Honors.